Book details

The Lantern House / Example Author / 12 October

My first reaction

Quiet and hopeful. The last conversation stayed with me.

The setup

A retired mapmaker returns to a coastal village and repairs an old lighthouse.

What worked for me

Small acts of kindness move the story forward. I wanted more time with the sister.

A detail to keep

Chapter 4: the empty chair at the kitchen table. It makes the absence visible.

Who might enjoy it

A reader who likes gentle mysteries, coastal settings, and patient characters.
